

Warsaw, 10 September 2010

To whom it may concern:

We are hereby pleased to inform that Bireta Professional Translations provides translation services to our company.

Bireta Professional Translations translates for us both technical documents, which because of their specificity require very thorough knowledge of power industry terminology, and agreements requiring exceptional accuracy, precision and language fluency.

We appreciate professionalism, good work organization and high quality of the services provided.

Bireta is a professional, honest and reliable company.
